Re: United States v. Miesha Cato
Docket # 24 CR 632 (KMK)

Dear Judge Karas;

I write to respectfully request a modification of Ms. Cato's conditions of release. At present, she must abide by a curfew which restricts her to her residence between 7 PM and 5 AM. She has two children, and she is their sole caretaker. The children are now involved in school activities, including sports, which sometimes extend into the evening hours. In order to allow Ms. Cato to attend these events, which are important to her children, we respectfully request that her curfew be extended to allow her to be out until 9:00 PM rather than 7 PM. Pretrial Services Officer Shannon Finneran advises that she does not object to this modification, and that Ms. Cato has been in compliance with her restrictions. AUSA Justin Brooke advises that the government does not object.

We also request that she be permitted to go to her sister's home in Ossining on Christmas Eve, and to remain there overnight until curfew on Christmas day, so she may celebrate with family. Again, Pretrial and the government do not object.

Thank you for your courtesy and consideration.

Granted.

So Ordered

12/19/24

Respectfully yours,

JOHN S. WALLENSTEIN
